PETTY REPUBLICAN TRICKS.

The Herald has already exposed some of the misrepresentations by which Republican stump speakers have been at tempting to beguile the unsophisticated voter. One of them has not yet been laid bare. It is the statement that: "Governor Thomas and all the Republican Judges, with the exception of one Democrat, and C. C. Goodwin sent a petition to the President saying Utah should be a state and polygamists should be granted annesty."

That is a gross misrepresentation of the facts in the case. The document referred to was simply an endorsement by certain Utah Republicans of the pe tition for amnesty from the Presidency and Twelve Apostles of the Latter-day Saints. It was not a recommendation for statehood. It was a declaration of belief in the sincerity of the appeal and that the promises implied therein would be adhered to if the application was granted. So much for the thing itself. Now as to the signers:

Judge Anderson was the only Deme cratic Judge on the supreme bench at that time. The Republican judges conferred on the matter but kept him in ignorance of the movement, which was craftily engineered by one of the signers of the endorsement, now engaged in his usual snaky tactics for the Republican party. It was intended y them to make political capital among the Mormon people, and is now being ed for that purpose.

But mark the sequel. Judge Anderon, who was aware that there was omething being kept from him by the other judges but did not know what it was, went to Washington, and in conversation with a member of Harrison's cabinet, was asked how it was that his name was not attached with that of the other judges to that endorsement of the petition for amnesty. He explained that he had not been let into the secret. The document was shown to him and he read it and signed it

Judge Anderson then communicated the facts to ex-Marshal Dyer, C. C. Richards, and others, among whom we Everybody was reading The Sunday believe was ex-Governor West, who yesterday. They want Corbett and Jackson have set the to claim all the credit for accomplishing what they were the chief instruments for so many years in preventing.
